2009 South Brunswick

Student Film & Video Festival

The South Brunswick Public Library is presenting its First Student Film Festival and is seeking films & videos to present. It is open to high school and college students (or home-schooled, unschooled or not in school) ages 14-24. There is no cost to enter. There is no residency requirement to submit your film. All entries must be accompanied by a completed entry form. The films selected will be shown on Dec. 12 at the South Brunswick Public Library, 110 Kingston Lane, Monmouth Junction, New Jersey. The filmmakers with selected films will be invited to introduce their films and provide a Q&A after the screening. All filmmakers, whether they have films selected or not, and family, friends, and anyone interested in film and filmmaking are invited to attend. Admission is free. The films presented are intended for a teen and adult audience.

Deadline for submissions: November 30, 2009
