Drumthwacket – New Jersey Governor’s Mansion

354 Stockton Street, Princeton, NJ 08540

609-683-0057

<http://www.drumthwacket.org/>

Drumthwacket is open most Wednesdays at 1 pm for guided public tours with the exception of August when the program is closed. Open Houses are scheduled on Wednesdays and Sundays from 11 am to 2 pm when the residence is decorated for the holidays. Please note that the Open House schedule is not posted until early fall. The format for the open houses is unguided although docents are available to answer questions. Advanced registrations are required for all tours.

Planning Your Visit

- Advanced registration is required. Registrations are not accepted the day of tours.
- There is no charge to tour Drumthwacket. Free parking is available on site.
- Guided tours of the residence are approximately 45 minutes to 1 hour and include the six public rooms used by the Governor for meetings and receptions. Tours highlight the history and architecture of the site in addition to the Foundation’s collection of fine art and antiques which fill each beautifully appointed room.
- Weather permitting guests may walk through the gardens at the end of the guided tour.
- Photography is permitted on the grounds but not inside the residence.
- Public tours are recommended for children ages 8+. All children must be accompanied by an adult.
- Drumthwacket is wheelchair accessible.
- No pets allowed with the exception of service or emotional support animals wearing service-appropriate apparel.
- While unlikely, tours are subject to last minute cancellation. If your tour is cancelled, you will be contacted by the email and/or telephone number used during the registration process.
